

In the early days of Ann Arbor, suppliers and manufacturers established themselves in what is now known as the Kerrytown District between the town center and the railroad line. They provided the lumber, coal, flour, oil, ice, and supplies needed to develop and maintain a prosperous community. Nearby were the homes of workers, and the adjacent area became a neighborhood of evolving ethnic diversity.

Photo: The intersection of Catherine St. and N. 4th Ave. circa 1879. Credit: Courtesy of the Bentley Historical Library

Attend our annual events

Ann Arbor Farmers Market
Every Saturday
Every Wednesday May–December

Sunday Artisan Market
Every Sunday April–December

Ann Arbor African American Downtown Festival
First weekend in June

Show Your Love
In September

A2 Artoberfest
In October

KindleFest
First Friday in December

Thank you to our sponsors

Explore!
kerrytowndistrict.org

The Kerrytown District Association is an historic neighborhood of residences and locally-owned businesses just north of downtown
Ann Arbor, Michigan, with shops, restaurants, concert venues, grocery,
farmers market, and more.
Stroll, eat, drink, shop, enjoy.

KERRYTOWN DISTRICT

SHOPPING & RETAIL

FOOD, DRINKS, GROCERY

PROFESSIONAL SERVICES

BEAUTY & FITNESS

ARTS & ENTERTAINMENT

In the Kerrytown Market & Shops:

- 16 Hands
- DuckaDilly Fabrics (online)
- FOUND Gallery & Gift Shop
- The Kitchen Loft
- Malofta Vintage
- Mudpuddles Toys & Books
- Nuuyuu Collective
- Spun Yarn Shop
- Durham's Tracklements & Smokery
- Everyday Wines
- Fustini's Oils & Vinegars
- Miss Kim
- Monahan's Seafood Market
- Sparrow Market
- Spice & Tea Merchants
- Sweetwaters Coffee & Tea
- Pure Visibility
- Q LTD Branding, Design, Web
- Bohmey Beauty
- The Pilates Barn

